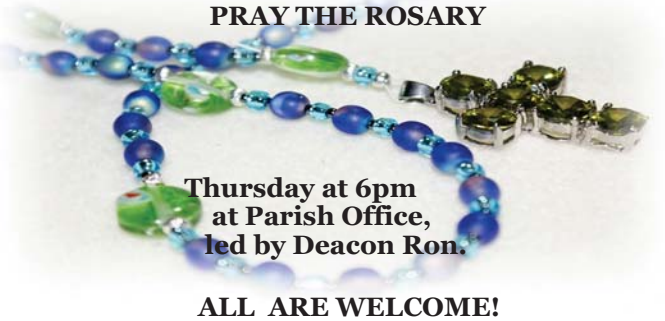
PRAY THE ROSARY



Thursday at 6pm
at Parish Office,
led by Deacon Ron.

ALL ARE WELCOME!

PATRIOTIC ROSARY FOR THE CONSECRATION OF OUR NATION

Each time we pledge allegiance to our flag,
we say these simple but powerful words:

"I pledge allegiance to the flag,
Of the United States of America,
And to the republic for which it stands,
One nation, under God,
With liberty and justice for all."

That was the sentiment in Philadelphia that sweltering summer of 1776 when our forebears gathered to sign Thomas Jefferson's Declaration of Independence from Great Britain and King George III, thus creating a new land, the United States of America.

250 years later, Americans will gather all over this great land of ours to celebrate freedom, high ideals, wonderful achievements, and work still to be done to ensure liberty and justice for all.

Since this nation was placed under God, we would like to celebrate 250 years of independence by commending our people and this blessed land to the care of God.

We invite one and all to come together on Thursday, June 25 at 6:30 PM in Assumption Church

as we celebrate Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament, pray a Patriotic Rosary, and end our prayer for God's blessing with Benediction. Afterward, we'll gather with our fellow Americans for some good, old-fashioned American treats in the parish hall.

The Church, our mother, is committed to supporting with all her strength the good and generous presence of fathers in families, for they are the irreplaceable guardians and mediators of faith in goodness, of faith in justice and in God's protection, like St. Joseph.

to walk as ONE

A media critic wrote about the portrayal of fathers on television shows. They all seemed to be clueless men, totally inept at dealing with children, wives or a crisis. They are less than sensitive, always joking, outsmarted by even the youngest of their children. While there are some exceptions, dads seem to be an easy target for jokes, insults and bad gags. But reality and experience paint a different story.

Dads I know are hardworking, smart and caring men. They sacrifice every day for their families, often managing two jobs, aging parents, a Girl Scout cookie sale, a Little League field building project and a 'honey-do' list of epic proportions. All this they do with a smile, a sense of gratitude and a deep joy that is evident in the pride they take in their families. These dads are no slouches; they give 'til it hurts and they hurt 'til they give. They truly reflect the love of God the Father as they create, guide, teach and heal their families and friends. So, with a great deal of gratitude and love, we say to the dads among us, Happy Father's Day!

A legacy of learning...a history with heart

Thanks for Celebrating with Us!

Sunday, May 31st our Assumption School extended family, came together in faith, food, and fun to celebrate 100 years of Catholic Education at our small but mighty school. We thank all our students, parents and staff, past and present, who came out to join us for Mass and the BBQ reception. It was wonderful to have so many from years past come and share stories and relive memories while touring the school. We would like to thank all who volunteered time and talent to make the day a very special one. We are certainly blessed to have such an amazing family here at Assumption School! Cheers to 100 years and many, many more!

The Gifts of the Holy Spirit

This week we will continue with the final three gifts as interpreted by St. Thomas Aquinas in his Summa Theologiae. So, let's begin.

Knowledge is the ability to judge correctly about matters of faith and right action, so as to never wander from the straight path of justice.

Piety is, principally, revering God with filial affection, paying worship and duty to God, paying due duty to all men on account of their relationship to God, and honoring the saints and not contradicting Scripture. The Latin word pietas denotes the reverence that we give to our father and to our country, since God is the Father of all, the worship of God is also called piety.

Fear of God is, in this context, "filial" or chaste fear whereby we revere God and avoid separating ourselves from Him, as opposed to "servile fear", whereby we fear punishment.

Let us pray: Come Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful and enkindle in them the fire of your love. Send forth your Spirit and they shall be created. And You shall renew the face of the earth. Amen.

We hope this has shed some light of understanding on the gifts of the Holy Spirit.

Men of our parishes, the COR gatherings are the first Sunday of the month at St. Mark's rectory, 9:15am- 10:15am and on the second Saturday of the month at St. Brigid parish office/rectory, 8am-9am. "It is not good for men to be alone" (Genesis 2:18). Don't do it alone. Come to COR for encouragement, you'll get good at receiving it from God.

May God's Peace, Love and Mercy be with you and your family,
